

The Brigham Young University Department of Theatre and Cinematic Arts Presents

DEATH TAKES A HOLIDAY

by Albert Casella directed by Max C. Golightly.

Is it merely fantasy? Imagine Death taking a three-day holiday to discover why people cling to life. His discovery brings him more than he sought plus gives him a new respect for mankind.

January 20, 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29

February 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 at 8 p.m. in the Pardoe Theatre

Matinees January 31 at 4:30 p.m. and February 15 at 1 p.m.

Tickets will go on sale Monday, January 10, 1983.

Faculty, Staff, Students--$2.00 General--$3.25

For more information call 378-3875

PARDOE THEATRE