JOY IN WATERS

JOHN H. HARRIS
ON THE BARRAGE
AND THE BARRAGE
AND THE BARRAGE

SEE HOW THEY RUN

BY PHILLIP KING

DIRECTED BY CHARLES L. METTEN

Come romp with us through this zany, wild, and totally fun show. An American actress marries a British village parson, and settles down in the Vicarage of Merton-cum-Middlewick, which practically adjoins an American Air Force base. The wonderful characters, exciting plot, and rollicking laughter are sure to make this show one of your all-time favorites.

September 15, 16, 17, 20, 21, 22, 23,

24, 27, 28, 29, 30 in the

Pardoe Drama Theatre.

Maine Monday, Sep 26, at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets go on sale September 5, 1983.

BOOK, LYRICS, MUSIC BY RICK BESOYAN

DIRECTED BY MARION BENTLEY

This glittering, sparkling musical bubbles over with charm and pure fun. The fairest of young maidens, the most heroic of forest rangers, and the fiercest wild Indians dance and sing through this romantic and joyful spoof of the old Jeanette McDonald and Nelson Eddy musicals. We dare you to leave the theatre with your feet touching the floor!

November 24, 25, 26, 29, 30,

December 1, 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 in the

Pardoe Drama Theatre.

Maine Monday, Dec 5, at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets go on sale Nov 14 1983

TERRA NOVA

BY TED TALLEY

DIRECTED BY IVAN CROSLAND

One of the great true adventure stories of our time, Terra Nova tells the story of the Scott Expedition to Antarctica. The adventure is not only one of great stamina and rare accomplishment, it is also a moving adventure into the heart, mind, and spirit of men who reach beyond the common and comfortably safe. This is one of the most highly acclaimed modern dramas of our time.

October 20, 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29,

November 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 in the

Pardoe Drama Theatre.

Maine Monday, Oct 31, at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets go on sale October 10, 1983.

BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

DIRECTED BY CHARLES W. WHITMAN

So Katharina says, "If I be waspish, best beware my sting!" But the shrew has met her match in the most macho male ever to grace the Globe. This most famous of Shakespeare's comedies brings Petruchio to vibrant life as he tames the cynical, furious, and impetuous Kate. We won't go so far as to endorse the bard's philosophy on how to train the perfect wife, but we will promise a brawling good show.

January 19, 20, 21, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28,

31, February 1, 2, 3, 4 in the

Pardoe Drama Theatre.

ANNIE

TURANDOT

BOOK BY THOMAS MEEHAN

MUSIC BY CHARLES STROUSE

LYRICS BY MARTIN CHARNIN

DIRECTED BY MAX C. GOLIGHTLY

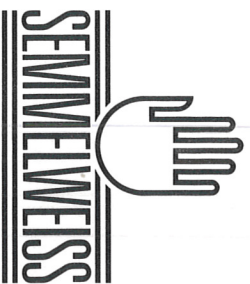

Want to brighten up your life? Want to feel young, optimistic, and happy again?

Want to believe in the basic good of mankind? Want to see the silver lining instead of the cloud? Here is the biggest bit that Broadway has seen for years: upbeat, confident, exhilarating, joyful, and with the tunes that everybody wants to whistle. And the unanimous verdict is that the stage show is better than the movie. A must!

February 15, 16, 17, 18, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 in the de Jong Concert Hall.

Matinee Monday, Feb 20, at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets go on sale February 6, 1984.

BY HOWARD SACKLER

GUEST DIRECTOR ED SHERIN

This towering play by the author of The Great White Hope is brought to life in the Pardoe Drama Theatre by one of America's most important professional directors—who also directed Sackler's The Great White Hope on Broadway. This is the story of Dr. Ignaz Semmelweiss, who made a medical discovery that has saved thousands, perhaps millions of lives. This dramatization of his struggle to stand up and cry out a simple truth illuminates on our stage a powerful effort in the progress of mankind.

BY CARLO GOZZI

TRANSLATED BY JONATHAN LEVY

DIRECTED BY LAEL WOODBURY

Here is the beautiful and exotic story of Prince Calaf and the implacable Princess Turandot. The tale, set in ancient China, was also immortalized in an operatic setting as Puccini's last great offering to the world of music. In our version, the music doesn't overwhelm the love story, the color, or the power of love to soften a heart of stone. A rare and glorious theatrical experience.

March 15, 16, 17, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 in the

Pardoe Drama Theatre.

Matinee Monday, Mar 26, at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets go on sale March 5, 1984.

BY THORNTON WILDER

DIRECTED BY JAMES A. VAN LEISHOUT

The all-time great American play that created the original Dolly Levi bursts to life in its initial form. Later to become the musical Hello Dolly, this show brings us the irascible and parsimonious Horace Vandergelder on a quest for a wife. Dolly is engaged as a matchmaker, but she wants Horace for herself! This is theatre at its finest, as only Thornton Wilder can create it.

July 26, 27, 28, 31, August 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 in the

Pardoe Drama Theatre.

MARGARET'S ARENA

BY ROB RAINEY

DIRECTED BY MAX GOLIGHTLY

This is a world premiere of a talented new playwright's hilarious work. In the tradition of Plaza Suite, we invade the same hospital room in three different crazy, zany situations. We promise laughter, chuckles, even guffaws when you go with us through this uproarious comedy.

October 6, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 in the

Margetts Arena Theatre.

Matinee Monday, Oct 17, at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets go on sale Sept 26, 1983.

WORLD PREMIERE PRODUCTION

BY CHRISTOPHER DURANG

DIRECTED BY TAD Z. DANIELEWSKI

This fast-paced comedy recomposes America's entire cinematic history, according to Time magazine, from Orphans of the Storm to The Exorcist, from the screwball comedies of the '30s to Elizabeth Taylor screaming at Richard Burton in the '60s. But the tongue is firmly in cheek—and the audience on the floor, laughing—while the deeper truths seep through the satire into our minds.

November 10, 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26 in the Nelke

Experimental Theatre.

Matinee Monday, Nov 21, at 4:30 p.m.

Tickets go on sale October 31, 1983.

What in the world is a sophisticated New York Jew doing in an old houseboat on a moonlit summer night with a homespun Missouri spinster? This Pulitzer Prize-winning and New York Drama Critic's Circle Award-winning play will warm your heart with its treatment of tolerance, understanding, and love. By America's foremost modern playwright.

February 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15,

16, 17, 18 in the

Margetts Arena Theatre.

BY JULIE BOXX

Movies and madcap mirth make up this clever comedy by the Maybeu Playwriting Contest winner for 1983. (She also won the same prize in 1982 for her play Apple of His Eye, featured in our 1982-83 season.) This is a romantic caper about a girl who is so infatuated with the movies that she has a bit of a problem in the love department. Don't miss this one!

March 22, 23, 24, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31,

April 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 in the

Margetts Arena Theatre.

BY A NEW PLAYWRIGHT
DIRECTED BY BARTA HEINER

Continuing in BYU theatre's tradition of excellence and innovation, here is another exciting and memorable original play by an up-and-coming writer. We can't reveal the title yet, but we can assure you that this surprise is worth waiting for. It is being selected and directed by Barta Heiner, the thoroughly professional actress remembered for her roles in The Belle of Amherst and Diantha, which she also wrote and directed.

May 10, 11, 12, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 22,
23, 24, 25, 26 in the
Margerts Arena Theatre.
