Provo, UT

As a professional theatre artist, my focus is directing, acting, musical theatre, and teaching. Beyond productions and the classroom, I have consulted creative entrepreneurial organizations, collaborated on curriculum development teams, and devised new performance content.

My research interests include artistic leadership, theatre business, directing plays and musicals, theatre intimacy training, musical theatre movement, stage combat, devising new works, and theatre for young audiences. Currently, my research is focused on directing, acting, and musical theatre.
